

Royal Danish Library - Danish National Art Library

Ordering scans

To be completed electronically or in block capitals

Booking date:

The applicant's name and address:

.....

.....

E-mail:

EAN number / CVR (Business Registration Number):

Inventory or serial number:

Artist/Photographer/Architect/Author:

Work:

Number of drawings/photographs/pages:.....

What resolution do you want (see the link below):

Resolution and prices: <http://www.kb.dk/en/kb/service/digitalisering/fotopriser.html>

Rules for use of library materials for reproduction

Royal Danish Library - Danish National Art Library should be provided with two free copies of any publication. Furthermore, the rights of the Royal Danish Library - Danish National Art Library must be respected, and any published material should clearly indicate that the original can be found in:

Royal Danish Library - The Danish National Art Library

(in Danish publications: Det Kgl. Bibliotek- Danmarks Kunstbibliotek)

Applicant's signature:

Under Danish law, the Royal Danish Library - Danish National Art Library owns and retains rights to all reproductions of materials in its collections. In cases where, under the 70-year copyright rule, there are persons who have rights to the materials held in the library's collections, permission to make reproductions requires the applicant to obtain written permission for such reproductions from the holder of the rights or heirs of any such holder. Such permission can usually be obtained by contacting Copydan.

The signed form is sent to: kontakt@kb.dk, att. Danmarks Kunstbibliotek